CLASSROOM POLICIES

My classroom policies can be summarized as "BE PROFESSIONAL!"

BE PROFESSIONAL/ EMAIL: The best way to get in touch with me is via email. Please allow me at least 24 hours to reply. If you do not get a response, do email me again. Emails sent over the weekend will be answered on Monday. Note that all emails should be professionally written or else they won't be answered.

BE PROFESSIONAL/ IN CLASS: This is a discussion-based class. For this reason, come prepared to class and participate. Being professional in class involves a number of things including but not limited to showing signs of good listenership, completing all homework assignments on time, being enthusiastic about learning, being vocal in class, venturing responses, comments, criticisms, suggestions that are thoughtful, intelligent, in line with class content, and reflecting mastery of materials and additional non-mandatory readings and research.

BE PROFESSIONAL/ATTENDANCE: You are allowed three (3) excused absences. Use them as you wish but be aware that you are solely responsible for what you miss on those days and that you will not be given any opportunity to make it up. If you miss more than two classes, you lose 50 points on your final grade for every additional absence. After nine (9) absences, you automatically fail the class, even if the absences are excused.

BE PROFESSIONAL/ASSIGNMENTS: All submitted papers should be written in accordance with the formatting guidelines on the assignment sheet. Carefully review those formatting guidelines before submitting your paper. Papers should be revised and edited multiple times to avoid typos and mechanical problems that would otherwise communicate signs of sloppiness on your part. Papers longer than a page should be stapled, or else I won't take them. It is your job to staple your papers, not mine.

BE PROFESSIONAL/LATE WORK: Late work is accepted, but for every day your work is late (including weekends), it will lose 5% of the total assignment points. In case of an extreme situation, make arrangements before the assignment is due.

BE PROFESSIONAL/PHONES: Phones should be turned off and kept out of sight. If you are expecting or have to make an emergency or an important call, it is okay to step out of the class to answer or make your call.

ASSIGNMENTS

SELECTING A SUBCULTURE

Select a Subculture - a specific group of people with shared interest - that you are not familiar with, but are interested in learning more about for your ethnographic research.

SOURCE REVIEW

Review five secondary sources that enhance your understanding of the subculture you are studying.

A DAY IN THE SUBCULTURE

Obtain permission and immerse yourself in your researched subculture in order to locate the observable artifacts and develop an insider perspective.

TALKING TO INSIDERS

Interview key members of the subculture in order to uncover their values and the underlying assumptions governing their behavior.

ARTIFACT ANALYSIS

Locate and describe the material or soft artifacts that enhance your understanding of your researched subculture.

ETHNOGRAPHIC RESEARCH

Synthesize your semester-long findings and writings into a 10 to 12-page ethnographic essay.

HOMEWORK ASSIGNMENTS

This course incorporates many in-class and homework writing assignments, which are worth 30% of your grade. Check the Paamsongre Ethnography: Research & Writing course management platform for the specific guidelines of each homework and in-class writing assignment.

DISABILITY STATEMENT

It is the policy of SAU to accommodate students with disabilities, pursuant to federal law, state law, and the University's commitment to equal education opportunities. Any student with a disability who needs accommodation should inform the instructor at the beginning of the course. Students with disabilities are also encouraged to contact the Office of Disabilities Support Services, 216 Reynolds Center at 870-235-4154.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Southern Arkansas University affirms its commitment to academic integrity and expects all members of the University community to accept shared responsibility for maintaining academic integrity. Students in this course are subject to the provisions of the University's Academic Integrity Policy, approved by the President and published in the Student Handbook. Acts of dishonesty include, but are not limited to:

- A. Plagiarism—the act of taking and/or using the ideas, work, and/or writings of another person as one's own.
- B. Cheating—an act of dishonesty with the intention of obtaining and/or using information in a fraudulent manner.
- C. Fabrication—faking or forging a document, signature or findings of a research project.
- D. Resubmission—submitting a work you have submitted for credit in a previous class.

All cases of academic misconduct will be reported and may result in penalties up to expulsion from the university. Continued enrollment in this course affirms a student's acceptance of this University policy.
