DEPARTMENT - Modern Languages

COURSE NUMBER - ENG 3023

COURSE NAME - Technical Writing

COURSE START DATE - Monday, January 13, 2020

COURSE END DATE - Sunday, May 10, 2020

COURSE DESCRIPTION - This course is a writing-intensive course designed to familiarize engineering and science students with the process of planning, drafting, and revising technical reports, scientific papers, communications, and proposals. Multiple writing practice assignments, group work, and exams will be oriented towards refining communication skills in professional discourses.

COURSE PREREQUISITE - Students taking this course should have completed general education requirements.

CREDIT HOUR DESCRIPTION - For every course credit hour of a 15-17 week semester, the typical student should expect to spend approximately 45 clock hours per term (135 clock hours for a 3-credit-hour course) of concentrated attention on course-related work, including but not limited to time engaged in class, as well as out-of-class time spent reading, reviewing, organizing notes, preparing for upcoming quizzes/exams, problem-solving, developing and completing projects, and other activities that enhance learning.

COURSE GOALS & OBJECTIVES

This course addresses writing within the wider fields of science, mathematics, engineering, and technology. In this course, you will learn to present information to a specific audience and for a specific purpose. The course will teach you how to use graphics, prose, verbal skills, and other media to develop, organize, and present information. By taking this course, you will:

- Master the conventions of various technical writing genres such as correspondences, application materials, proposals, technical guides, technical reports, and technical descriptions by examining the various rhetorical strategies used in them and applying those strategies in your own writing.
- Acquire research skills by locating, evaluating, using, and citing primary and secondary research to support your argument.
- Develop visual literacy - the ability to encode and decode information based on how it is physically structured for reading - by applying design elements such as page layout, typeface, font size, spacing, proximity, alignment, color, contrast, repetition, grouping and white space in your writing.
- Become familiar with industry-standard applications by preparing and publishing your final drafts with applications such as Microsoft Word, Adobe FrameMaker, Pitochart, Google Docs, Lunapics, Adobe Photoshop, Snipping Tool, and Grammarly.
- Revisit in-depth the stages of the writing process, by using audience analysis techniques, invention techniques, content organization techniques, revision and editing techniques with an emphasis on grammar, punctuation, mechanics, and style.
- Gain collaborative skills by planning, assigning roles and tasks, writing group contracts, arranging face-to-face and online meetings, using online collaborative conferencing and writing tools such as Doodle and GoogleDocs, speaking up, showing signs of good listenership, compromising, developing tolerance, etc.

CLASSROOM POLICIES

My classroom policies can be summarized as "BE PROFESSIONAL!"

BE PROFESSIONAL/ EMAIL: The best way to get in touch with me is via email. Please allow me at least 24 hours to reply. If you do not get a response, do email me again. Emails sent over the weekend will be answered on Monday. Note that all emails should be professionally written or else they won't be answered.

BE PROFESSIONAL/ IN CLASS: This is a discussion-based class. For this reason, come prepared to class and participate. Being professional in class involves a number of things including but not limited to showing signs of good listenership, completing all homework assignments on time, being enthusiastic about learning, being vocal in class, venturing responses, comments, criticisms, suggestions that are thoughtful, intelligent, in line with class content, and reflecting mastery of materials and additional non-mandatory readings and research.

BE PROFESSIONAL/ATTENDANCE: You are allowed two (2) excused absences. Use them as you wish but be aware that you are solely responsible for what you miss on those days and that you will not be given any opportunity to make it up. If you miss more than two classes, you lose 50 points on your final grade for every additional absence. After seven (7) absences, you automatically fail the class, even if the absences are excused.

BE PROFESSIONAL/ASSIGNMENTS: All submitted papers should be written in accordance with the formatting guidelines on the assignment sheet. Carefully review those formatting guidelines before submitting your paper. Papers should be revised and edited multiple times to avoid typos and mechanical problems that would otherwise communicate signs of sloppiness on your part. Papers longer than a page should be stapled, or else I won't take them. It is your job to staple your papers, not mine.

BE PROFESSIONAL/LATE WORK: Late work is accepted, but for every day your work is late (including weekends), it will lose 5% of the total assignment points. In case of an extreme situation, make arrangements before the assignment is due.

BE PROFESSIONAL/PHONES: Phones should be turned off and kept out of sight. If you are expecting or have to make an emergency or an important call, it is okay to step out of the class to answer or make your call.

ASSIGNMENTS

RHETORICAL ANALYSIS MEMO:

100 POINTS

Locate a technical document and examine how it reflects the characteristics of technical writing. Share your analysis in a 2-3-page memorandum addressed to me.

UNSOLICITED PROPOSAL:

200 POINTS

Identify a local problem on your campus, workplace, or field of study and write a 10-12 page unsolicited proposal that presents a fully-fleshed solution to the problem. Your proposal should be addressed to the relevant decision-makers.

RECOMMENDATION REPORT:

300 POINTS

In groups of 2-3 students, you will identify a number of options that could be the potential solution to a client's problem, systematically weigh each of these options against a set of methodologically-generated criteria, and recommend the best course(s) of action to your client in a 40 to 60-page recommendation report.

REVISIONS AND PRESENTATIONS

100 POINTS

Revise your unsolicited proposal based on the professor's feedback and present it to your classmates in a 15-minute oral presentation supported by visual aid.

HOMEWORK ASSIGNMENTS

300 POINTS

This course incorporates many in-class and homework writing assignments, which are worth 30% of your grade. Check the Paamsongre Technical Writing course management platform for the specific guidelines of each homework and in-class writing assignment.

DISABILITY STATEMENT

It is the policy of SAU to accommodate students with disabilities, pursuant to federal law, state law, and the University's commitment to equal education opportunities. Any student with a disability who needs accommodation should inform the instructor at the beginning of the course. Students with disabilities are also encouraged to contact the Office of Disabilities Support Services, 216 Reynolds Center at 870-235-4154.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Southern Arkansas University affirms its commitment to academic integrity and expects all members of the University community to accept shared responsibility for maintaining academic integrity. Students in this course are subject to the provisions of the University's Academic Integrity Policy, approved by the President and published in the Student Handbook. Acts of dishonesty include, but are not limited to:

- A. Plagiarism—the act of taking and/or using the ideas, work, and/or writings of another person as one's own.
- B. Cheating—an act of dishonesty with the intention of obtaining and/or using information in a fraudulent manner.
- C. Fabrication—faking or forging a document, signature or findings of a research project.
- D. Resubmission—submitting a work you have submitted for credit in a previous class.

All cases of academic misconduct will be reported and may result in penalties up to expulsion from the university. Continued enrollment in this course affirms a student's acceptance of this University policy.
